Resources for a pastor

Community Resources
In many countries, there are resources in the community to which a pastor can turn. The first is always the local “safe house” or “women’s shelter.” These establishments are always anxious to assist in dealing clergy about the problem. They are listed in your phone book.

International Organizations
Some further domestic violence resource centers are:

Human Rights Watch, 1522 K Street NW #910, Washington, DC 20005, phone (202)371-6592

International Women’s Rights Action Watch, Humphrey Institute of Public Affairs, University of Minnesota, 301 19th Avenue South. Minneapolis, MN 55455

Abuse! What is it

Abuse is to intentionally or unconsciously injure or damage someone physically, psychologically/emotionally, or sexually with the purpose to intimidate, dominate, control and/or exercise power.

About Abuse

Abuse can be isolated or habitual, premeditated or spontaneous. The one who inflicts the abuse is typically called the abuser; the one who is abused is typically called the victim. Abuse can be overt or very subtle. Regardless of the type of abuse an individual receives – the results are similarly destructive.

Forms of Abuse

Physical: Actions which cause humiliation, physical pain or injury.
Psychological/Emotional: actions which cause loss of self-esteem, and/or self determination
Sexual: Actions of a sexual nature that are unwelcome, uncomfortable, inappropriate or forced

Child Abuse: All of the above definitions, as well as neglect, deprivation of essentials e.g. medical attention, food, appropriate supervision and care.

Who are abused

Abuse is neither gender or age specific but the vast majority of abused are women and children. One in three women in the world can expect to be abused sometime in her life.

As a pastor have you ever

• Believed that abuse does not happen in the SDA church?
• Been asked for help by a victim of abuse?
• Been overwhelmed by the needs of victims of abuse?
• Wished you had more resources to help you respond to domestic violence.
• Felt like your training did not equip you to respond to victims of abuse?

As a pastor I can

• Recognize that abuse happens, even in my church
• Do all to ensure that my church is a safe place for all
• Make my church a comfortable and safe place to talk about issues relating to abuse

Don’t

• Use religious teachings and sermons to support abuse
• Forget that the safety of the victim is most important
• Deny and minimize violence
• Ignore, cover, deny or remain silent about abuse
• Breach the confidentiality of the victim
• Allow excuses for family violence
• Assume a role for which you were not trained (i.e.)
